

WRITERS IN NEW YORK

May 22–June 15, 2017 | Eight Undergraduate Credits

Writers in New York offers students of poetry, fiction, and creative nonfiction an opportunity to develop their craft while living the writer's life in Greenwich Village. The NYU Creative Writing Program is housed in a beautiful historic townhouse in the same neighborhood where many writers—including Mark Twain, E. E. Cummings, James Baldwin, Willa Cather, Marianne Moore, Richard Wright, and Frank O'Hara—have lived and worked. The intensive four-week program features:

- ▶ Daily workshops and craft classes taught by accomplished professional writers
- ▶ Writing and reading assignments designed to encourage immersion in New York City
- ▶ A lively series of evening readings, panels, literary field trips, and special events with acclaimed authors and editors

FACULTY

Cris Beam, John Murillo, Matthew Rohrer, Saïd Sayrafiezadeh, Elissa Schappell, Helen Schulman, Irimi Spanidou, Darin Strauss, Craig Morgan Teicher, Chuck Wachtel, Rachel Zucker, Joanna Yas (Director)

RECENT VISITING WRITERS & EDITORS

Emily Barton, Thomas Beller, Marie-Helene Bertino, Tina Chang, Eduardo C. Corral, Lydia Davis, Geoff Dyer, Matthea Harvey, Adam Haslett, Amy Hempel, A. M. Homes, Major Jackson, Naomi Jackson, Mira Jacob, Saeed Jones, Etgar Keret, Karl Ove Knausgaard, Sam Lipsyte, Eileen Myles, Helen Oyeyemi, Ed Park, Tommy Pico, Patrick Rosal, Dani Shapiro, Brando Skyhorse, Emma Straub, Wells Tower, Rebecca Wolff

Open to NYU and visiting students.
For more information visit us at

cwp.as.nyu.edu

Other Summer 2017 NYU
Creative Writing Opportunities

Writers in Florence

May 28–June 24

Faculty includes Mark Bibbins, Alexander Chee, and Maaza Mengiste

Writers in Paris

June 24–July 22

Faculty includes Catherine Barnett, Nathan Englander, and Hari Kunzru

On-Campus Writing Workshops

May 22–July 2 and
July 3–August 13

NYU

ARTS &
SCIENCE